

Privacy policy:

Tableau Extensions

Scope

This Privacy Policy applies to the execution of the License Agreement provided by Actinvision for the Tableau Extension product line.

Use of collected personal data

Upon registering your account for usage of an Actinvision Tableau Extension, you will be asked to provide the following information:

- Company:
 - Company Name & Address (Street, ZIP Code, City, Country)
 - Phone Number
- Individual Contact:
 - First Name
 - Last Name
 - Email Address
 - Phone Number

This information is critical and required to identify the Company as the License Holder, and the Individual Contact as the individual authorized to update Company information and manage the license subscription.

This information can therefore be used during an auditing process to ensure the proper enforcement and application of the License Agreement.

Processing of Customer Data

Actinvision Tableau Extensions can either be installed in the customer's internal environment, an external environment of the customer's choosing (e.g. Data Writer) or hosted in Azure (Viz Extensions).

In all instances, no data is stored in the extension itself, nor its server.

The rights you have over your data

If you have an account with Actinvision you can request to receive a file containing all the personal data about you in our records, including those that you have provided to us. You can also request the deletion of personal data concerning you, except for data stored for administrative, legal, security reasons, or for the fulfilment of an existing and active License Agreement between you Company and Actinvision.

For any such requests and to exercise your rights, please contact dpo@actinvision.com
